Informant stated he recently heard of the death of FELIX ALDERISIO who died while serving a term at the United States Penitentiary, Marion, Illinois. [redacted] b6 b7C b7D He described ALDERISIO as "crazy, but a money maker". ALDERISIO at that time was very closely associated with CHUCK NICOLETTI. The two were dangerous and feared by the mob. They had strong backing from SAM BATTAGLIA and top men ACCARDO and RICCA. Both were sharp operators but PHIL was much more aggressive and soon got into scam operations with such characters as [redacted]

On 11/22/71, ANGELO JANNOTTA, aka. 545 N. Woods, Chicago, was observed by SAs [redacted] and [redacted] in the vicinty of 545 N. Woods in a 1967 Ford, 4 door sedan bearing 1971 Illinois license SC 2716.

JANNOTTA furnished the Agents the spelling of his last name as given above. He went on to say he has been hospitalized recently at Augustana Hospital with stomach trouble and that he has been under doctor's care for an extended period of time with tuberculosis which has been arrested. He said he is presently unemployed and spends his days playing "short cards". He said he continues to reside at 545 N. Woods, and identified the cleaning establishment on the corner as that of his father.

When asked he stated he has not visited the pool room at the corner of Grand and May, and has not visited or worked in any wire rooms in years, adding that he does not engage in any gambling except for friendly games of short cards as mentioned above.

He stated SAM BATTAGLIA was framed by the government. He also said he has not seen JOSEPH BATTAGLIA or ROCCO SALVATORE in years. He declined to discuss the activities of any of these individuals saying "they never hurt anyone".

When Agents indicated a desire to continue the conversation, JANNOTTA begged off saying he had to go someplace and that he felt a continuance of the conversation served no worthwile purpose.
